

The University of Alabama Women and Gender Resource Center (WGRC) seeks a part-time WGRC Victim Advocate counselor to provide advocacy and case management services, R-client database entry, on-call crisis intervention, and speaking engagements. The Victim Advocate will provide advocacy services for a diverse population of students, faculty, and staff who are victims of interpersonal violence.

Requirements include: Bachelor's degree in social work, counseling, psychology, human development, law, or education and two (2) years of experience working with students, women, or an advocacy program/agency; OR Master's degree in social work, counseling, psychology, human development, law, or education.

Must be able to demonstrate sound judgment and be able to function in a crisis. Must have excellent human relations skills and be able to work effectively as part of a team. Must have excellent communication skills, both verbal and written. Must be able to work with diverse populations. Word processing skills. Must have flexible hours and be willing to work nights and weekends when required.

Job close date 04/22/2021.

Visit UA's employment website at <http://bit.ly/UAJob512648> for more information and to apply. The University of Alabama is an equal-opportunity employer (EOE) including an EOE of protected vets and individuals with disabilities. Thank you!